

中学生のナミ(Nami)が料理人のジョン(John)にインタビューをしています。この対話文を読んで、(1)～(4)に入る最も適当なものを、それぞれあとのア～エのうちから一つずつ選び、その符号を答えなさい。〈千葉〉

Nami: Today, I'd like to interview you for my presentation.

John: OK, Nami. Please ask me anything.

Nami: Thank you. First, why did you come to Japan? Did you come to Japan (1)?

John: No, not at all. I first came to Japan fifteen years ago as an *exchange student. While I was studying at a university in Tokyo, I fell in love with *Japanese cuisine. After the first year of my exchange program, I left the university and entered a Japanese cooking school.

Nami: That's interesting. When did you open your own restaurant?

John: About two years ago.

Nami: You mean (2)?

John: Well, I had to learn many things, so it took a long time. After I graduated from the cooking school, I started working at a restaurant and I learned more. I needed to learn Japanese language and culture, too.

Nami: I see. (3)

John: I wanted to keep living here and learning more about Japan.

Nami: Lastly, (4)?

John: Yes. I would like to open a second restaurant in my country in 10 years.

Nami: Wow! That would be great.

次の英文は、高校1年生のタクマ(Takuma)と留学生のジャック(Jack)の対話の一部です。これを読んで、あとの(1)、(2)に答えなさい。〈青森〉

Takuma: Hi, Jack. What did you do during summer vacation?

Jack: I went to Kyoto with my family. We visited some famous temples. They were old, but very beautiful. Someday I want to travel there again.

Takuma: Wow! You had a nice vacation.

5 Jack: How was your summer vacation?

Takuma: It was good. [A]

Jack: What was it?

Takuma: It was running. My father likes running and always says he is *refreshed after running. When I had nothing to do, I tried running with my father and felt very good. Now I enjoy it every day.

10 Jack: Every day? I'm surprised to hear that!

Takuma: It is not so hard to run every day. I usually run in Midori Park. It is a large park near my house, and it has a lot of trees. I really like running there.

Jack: That sounds great. I want to start to *exercise, too.

Takuma: How about running? It's easy to start and you don't need to buy anything.

15 Jack: That's good. But I'm *worried. [B]

Takuma: Oh, you don't have to! When I started running, I could run for only five minutes. But I felt better.

Jack: Really? I thought I needed to run more. I will try running for a short time at first.

20 Takuma: I'm sure that you can enjoy running! You may think that you want to run for a long time if you keep running.

Jack: I hope so. [C]

Takuma: Of course! I am very glad. How about running in the morning on Saturday?

Jack: OK. What time is good for you?

Takuma: I usually start to run at nine on weekends. So, let's meet at Midori Park then.

25 Jack: I see. I'm looking forward to running with you.
